

Sequence/Chronological Text Organizer

Title:Topic:

Important Details: 	Main Idea(s): } Group important details that form one main idea.
--	--

Summary:

Sequence/Chronological Texts

Sequence/chronological texts are written to show how to do something, explain the progression of something, or to relate a series of events that happen over time.

Signs of Sequential Text

- Signal Words:
 - first, second, third
 - next, after, not long after, later, following, then
 - before, prior to, earlier, previously
 - during, meanwhile, in the meantime, throughout
 - finally, last, lastly
 - most recent, now, soon

Guiding Questions

- Topic: What sequence of events is being described? (One-two words.)
- Important Details: What are the major events or incidents that occur? What is the order of the events, steps, directions, or procedures?
- Main Idea: What events are important to remember or understand about the topic being described? (One sentence.)
- Summary: What are the main ideas and important details that are necessary to include? How will you state them in your own words following the structure of the text? (As concisely as possible.)